SCHOLARSHIP FUND INFORMATION

The Mountain Hermitage

From the time of the Buddha, dana (generosity or donation) has been a fundamental aspect of the Buddhist tradition. The teachings have been offered freely and teachers have been supported by the generous donations of those who appreciate the teachings.

In keeping with this tradition, our Scholarship Fund assists those who might otherwise be unable to practice at the Hermitage – for instance, those unable to work due to disability, age, or single parent child-rearing, those whose vocations in full-time active service work or other endeavors entails a life of voluntary simplicity or poverty, or those whose current life circumstances are such that the retreat fee would present substantial financial hardship.

REQUIRED DEPOSIT – The listed required deposit must be included with your registration. If you are not awarded a scholarship for the retreat, your deposit will be returned in full.

CANCELLATIONS BY SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

- No cancellation fee is incurred if you cancel within 12 days after you receive your scholarship confirmation, otherwise your deposit will be retained by TMH and put into the scholarship fund.
- In the event of specific, unusual emergency circumstances, the above cancellation policy can be discussed with The Mountain Hermitage Office Manager after the retreat is concluded.

In the case of this special scholarship offer, the fee structure and the cancellation policy outlined in the TMH INTRODUCTION document do not apply.

If you have to cancel, please do it early.

Late cancellations do not give us time to offer a space or to award a scholarship to someone else. Unreturnable deposits will go into the TMH Scholarship Fund.

APPLICATION PROCESS – Complete and return the following items to TMH:

- Scholarship Fund Application Form (on the reverse of this sheet).
- Retreat APPLICATION FORM (can be downloaded from www.mountainhermitage.org or can be mailed to your postal address).
- Deposit of $200.

Allow at least ten days for processing your application. Applications are accepted only by mail. Notification of acceptance will be made by postal mail or email.

* Please be assured that we will do our best to help you attend a retreat with us. ****
