SCHOLARSHIP FUND INFORMATION

From the time of the Buddha, dana (generosity or donation) has been a fundamental aspect of the Buddhist tradition. The teachings have been offered freely and teachers have been supported by the generous donations of those who appreciate the teachings.

In keeping with this tradition, our Scholarship Fund assists those who might otherwise be unable to practice at the Hermitage – for instance, those unable to work due to disability, age, or single parent child-rearing, those whose vocations in full-time active service work or other endeavors entails a life of voluntary simplicity or poverty, or those whose current life circumstances are such that the retreat fee would present substantial financial hardship.

REQUIRED DEPOSIT – The deposit must be included with your registration. If you are not awarded a scholarship for the retreat, your deposit will be returned in full.
Deposit for this retreat: $400

CANCELLATIONS BY SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

- Cancellations received on or before January 1, 2022: your deposit will be returned minus a $25 cancellation fee.
- Cancellations received on or after January 2, 2022 (including non-attendance at the retreat): your deposit cannot be refunded. If you have already paid the balance, then that balance will be refunded minus the $400 cancellation fee/deposit.
- In the event of specific, unusual emergency circumstances, the above cancellation policy can be discussed with The Mountain Hermitage Office Manager after the retreat is concluded.

If you have to cancel, please do it early.

Late cancellations do not give us time to offer a space or to award a scholarship to someone else. Nonreturnable deposits will go into the TMH Scholarship Fund.

APPLICATION PROCESS – Complete and return the following items to TMH:

- Scholarship Fund Application Form (on the reverse of this sheet).
- Retreat APPLICATION FORM & WAIVER OF LIABILITY FORM (can be downloaded from www.mountainhermitage.org or can be mailed to your postal address).
