With Marcia Rose & teaching assistant Kristina Baré

February 16 - March 2, 2022

ONLINE

INTRODUCTION

Sitting together for a retreat is a precious and wonderful opportunity. We look forward to your possible presence at this online retreat with joyful anticipation. Mountain Hermitage Guiding Teacher Marcia Rose is the lead teacher for this retreat. Kristina Baré is the teaching assistant for this retreat. This retreat will have up to 30 participants.

This ONLINE 2-week Samatha-Vipassana retreat will be for experienced students. Please see the listed prerequisites following this introduction.

We will begin the retreat with attending to and strengthening our capacity for a clear focused attention via some Anapana sati teachings and practice. We will then move into Vipassana/Insight teachings and practices via attending to the 4 domains/foundations of mindfulness through a general overview of the teachings and the engagement in practice with this perspective...along with some specific mindfulness based insight teachings and practices that will be offered along the way. As the two weeks unfold we will bring attention back to the Anapanasati practice at times to continue strengthening and deepening our capacity for a clear and focused attention to what is presenting itself in our ongoing body/mind/heart continuum.

We will all observe the 5 precepts for lay practitioners. Those who would like to explore practice via observing 8 precepts are very welcome to do so. There will be daily evening Dhamma Talks and/or guided sits as well as shorter morning reflections and/or practice instructions most mornings at the after-breakfast group sit. Students are requested to attend all of the scheduled group sits. Marcia will offer one-on-one practice meetings every couple of days for each student. Kristina will also be available for one-on-one practice meetings throughout the retreat. Some students may choose to sit more independently at times. This option can be discussed with the teacher during practice meetings. The online meditation hall will be open 24/7.

Applications and fees are requested no later than February 1, 2022. Printable Forms are located at the bottom of this page.

PREREQUISITES FOR THIS RETREAT

Practitioners wishing to join us for this two-week retreat, must have sat three or more 5-10 day retreats. These retreats must have been led by a recognized Buddhist teacher. If you have questions about your qualifications, please contact Kathy at hermitage@mountainhermitage.org.

Details of the qualifying retreats, including teachers' names, dates, location and length of the retreat, must be documented on the application form. Please make sure to include any meditation and retreat experience as well, as this information will be helpful to the teacher.

The retreat will be limited to 30 practitioners, so early application is suggested.

ABOUT THE MOUNTAIN HERMITAGE

Yogis are encouraged to maintain sustained and continuous practice during their participation in this Mountain Hermitage retreat. Teaching support for this retreat will consist of daily morning practice instruction or reflection or guided sit, one-on-one practice meetings as scheduled by the teacher and group chanting of the Refuge and Precepts, a Dhamma Talk or Q&A in the evenings.

This Mountain Hermitage retreat offers a unique practice opportunity. In order to benefit from this environment, applicants need to be largely self-sustaining in their practice and be comfortable in unbroken silence and solitude. All participants must be mentally stable and physically able to care for themselves. Everyone must have health insurance or be able to cover their expenses in case of illness or medical emergencies. Any special needs must be discussed and agreed to in advance, as the staff is very small and cannot accommodate high levels of support for any individual.

We ask that retreatants commit themselves fully to their retreat. All business and family obligations should be taken care of prior to the beginning of the retreat so that practice can be uninterrupted.

TEACHER

Marcia Rose is the founding and guiding teacher of The Mountain Hermitage and founding teacher of Taos Mountain Sangha. She has been studying and practicing Buddhist teachings and meditation with Asian and Western teachers since 1970, primarily in the Theravada-Vipassana (Path of the Elders) tradition. Her own teaching reflects a clear influence from the Burmese Mahasi Vipassana and Pa-Auk Forest Monastery lineages with authorization from Venerable Pa Auk Sayadaw to teach Samatha and Jhanas in his lineage. She has also studied and practiced in the Dzogchen Tibetan Buddhist tradition with Tulku Urgyen Rinpoche, Nyoshul Khen Rinpoche, and Tsoknyi Rinpoche. Marcia was resident teacher for staff at the Insight Meditation Society (IMS) in Barre, MA from 1991-1995. She has been one of the teachers for the annual three-month retreat at IMS, as well as a visiting teacher at IMS for other retreats and a regular visiting teacher at The Forest Refuge in Barre, MA. Marcia has taught Vipassana, Concentration, Brahma Vihara, and Creative Process retreats in various U.S. and international venues for over 30 years, and is dedicated to offering these ancient and timeless teachings in ways that make them accessible and authentic for contemporary culture.

TEACHING ASSISTANT

Kristina Baré will be Marcia's teaching assistant during this online retreat. Kristina is a trauma psychologist and deep dharma practitioner. She has practiced Vipassana meditation in the Mahasi Sayadaw tradition for the last 12 years. In 2019/2020 she spent altogether 3.5 months in silent retreat practice at the Forest Refuge and then another 3 months in self-retreat under the guidance of her teacher Marcia Rose. Through 2019-20 she primarily practiced in the Pa Auk Sayadaw tradition with a focus on Anapanasati and the Brahma Viharas: loving-kindness, compassion, empathetic joy and equanimity. USE OF FEES

DANA

DANA, an ancient Pali word meaning generosity, giving, or gift, is central to the 2,600-year-old tradition of Buddhism. The teachings of the Buddha are held to be beyond any price and have been offered freely since the time of the Buddha. This retreat is offered in that same spirit.

The early teachers received no payment for their instruction. In Buddhist countries, traditionally, it has always been understood that the lay community, through their voluntary generosity (their dana), provide physical support - the basic needs of food, clothing, shelter and medicine - for the monks and nuns. In turn they were/are offered guidance and teachings in their own practice by this monastic sangha.

This practice of dana has been a very significant pillar in keeping the Dhamma (teachings) alive. The generosity of the laity towards the practical support of the monastic community since ancient times, is what has kept the Dhamma spreading through the world. Western teachers have continued this tradition of offering the teachings freely. In our culture, where no real training exists in living generously, it is a new practice for us in both offering and receiving the Dhamma.

Dana is not only a practical matter; it also plays a crucial role in the spiritual life of a Dhamma practitioner. Generosity is the first of the ten paramis, or qualities of character, to be perfected in spiritual life. The very act of giving is of immeasurable benefit to the giver, for it opens the heart, lessens self-absorption, and serves the well-being of others.

The Mountain Hermitage fees for this retreat only cover basic expenses and operating costs. The teacher(s) offer the Buddha Dhamma without any set fee, and depend on the generosity of students for the support of their daily life needs. Giving to the teacher, from the heart, whatever feels appropriate, is the practice of Dana. You may also wish to offer Dana to the staff, or to the Hermitage itself to support operating expenses or future scholarships.

HOW TO MAKE AN OFFERING

At the end of the retreat, the retreat manager(s) will give a brief talk about offering Dana. Cash or checks on US funds may be used. All dana checks should be made out to The Mountain Hermitage. The Mountain Hermitage is a 501(c)(3) tax-deductible charitable organization. All dana offered to The Mountain Hermitage for use in supporting the teacher, scholarships & general expenses are tax deductible. Donations to staff are not tax-deductible. If you would like to offer dana by credit card, please ask the Retreat Manager for more information during the retreat. OR ask Kathy at hermitage@mountainhermitage.org before the retreat.
