We Need Your Help

Dear Friend in the Dharma,

The Mountain Hermitage needs your help. We are facing an unprecedented financial shortfall that might well compromise our ability to offer our full schedule of retreats this year and in 2024.

** Our annual spring retreat, the mainstay of our retreat offerings, had a full-house of people registered but suffered a critical loss of $20,000+ due to a sudden plethora of late cancellations and a nonrefundable facility deposit.

We continue to operate on a lean, efficient budget that provides for a good measure of scholarship aid as well as supporting our modest administrative costs. But this event has severely impacted our ability to fulfill our mission for the balance of the year. We have kept the faith for nineteen years now, weathering downturns and celebrating the successes we measure wholly by the enriched lives of those we are grateful to serve.

While we are now challenged for funding, we know we are rich in the generosity of friends in the Dharma like you, willing to transform your personal commitment to the Dharma to the generous support foundational to the life and work of The Mountain Hermitage.

On behalf of the many practitioners for whom a Hermitage retreat has been the inspiration for enhanced growth, transformative insight, and good work in the world, and all of us who care deeply about all we can offer and accomplish together, please send a generous helping gift as soon as you can.

Thank you in advance for your help and prompt response.

With much gratitude and metta,
